

Announcing
The 1st Annual
Teaching and Learning Conference
at Dixie State University

April 10, 2015

Theme: Effective, Efficient, and Engaging Learning

Why: Provide an opportunity for DSU faculty and staff to share and learn new teaching and learning best practices, innovations, and lessons learned.

What: This one-day conference will include roundtable, poster, concurrent, and panel presentations. A catered luncheon will be provided. The keynote speaker is Dr. M. David Merrill, an internationally renowned instructional effectiveness consultant.

Who: The conference is free for all DSU faculty and staff and is sponsored by the Teaching and Learning Committee and the Center for Teaching and Learning (CTL).

When: April 10, 2015 from 9:00 am to 3:45 pm. Come and participate in the conference as your schedule permits.

Where: Gardner Student Center Ballroom.

Please reserve April 10, 2015 on your schedule so you can participate in this exciting new conference. We guarantee you will gain insight on how to be a more effective, efficient, and engaging teacher.

A Call for proposals, registration, and more information will be forthcoming.

For more information or questions, please contact a member of the Steering Committee: Sandy Petersen (Petersen@dixie.edu), Bruce Harris (Bruce.harris@dixie.edu), or Josh Stanley (Stanley@dixie.edu).